YOU HAVE ONLY TWO CHOICES

1. You can prearrange your family estate and/or funeral services before death enters your home.

or

2. You can wait until your death forces someone who loves you to make your cemetery and funeral arrangements.

Now that you understand the facts and benefits of prearrangement, you have an important decision to make.

If you choose the path of prearrangement, we as prearrangement counselors stand ready to assist you in any way possible.

KNOW THE FACTS!

FACT!

The death of a loved one is a tragedy every household experiences.

FACT!

Most families will find themselves poorly prepared to deal with the problems, decisions, and costs a death forces on them.

FACT!

The decision to prearrange your cemetery or funeral needs today is very economically sound, although the strongest reasons to prearrange are love and peace of mind.

1. Togetherness

A husband and wife can share their choices and decide together, therefore saving loved ones heartache, expense and inconvenience at the time of death.

2. Satisfaction

On a prearrangement basis, a family burial estate and/or funeral merchandise can be selected by all family members, thus guaranteeing everyone's satisfaction.

3. Price - Freezing

Based on a family foundation of seventy-five (75) years in funeral service, we know the cost of cemetery and funeral arrangements will continue to increase. Prearrangement allows costs to be frozen at today's prices.

4. Conserves Insurance

Life insurance is for the living, not the deceased. Most life insurance is purchased to allow a family time to adjust to the loss of income that a death causes. If prearrangement is not made, a large amount of insurance proceeds can be spent on cemetery and funeral items adding financial burdens to loved ones left behind.

5. Payments

Everyone will die and have funeral and memorialization costs are expenses every individual must plan to pay. These costs can be fixed and met today out of current income through budget payments. Payment at the time of death is traditionally made on a cash basis.

6. Selection

Perhaps you believe that there is room for you, your spouse and children in the family lot. It is possible that others in the family will use up the family lot before your family experiences a death. You should find out if there will be room for you, your spouse and children. So that you, nor your spouse will have the additional expense of cemetery property at the time of death.
